

*Call for Papers:

THE GLOBAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION

FIFTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Contested Terrains of Globalization

University of California Irvine, May 17–20, 2007

(Abstract Deadline March 15--see below)*

The North American Global Studies Association (GSA) is a multi-disciplinary scholarly association set up in order to address the vast social, political & economic transformations of global scope which are impacting upon the world today. The GSA provides a forum for scholars to collaborate & explore shared responses to such phenomenon, particularly in the context of globalization, and allows interests that are not easily accommodated in single disciplinary conferences to be fully recognized & encouraged in a smaller more intimate environment. GSA's upcoming conference, /Contested Terrains of Globalization/, will have a central and unambiguous commitment to drawing upon materials and investigations from a number of disciplines along with an interest in a wide range of themes and concerns. Attending scholars will not only originate from the social science disciplines but will also include those with an interest in global issues from communication studies, ethics, art history, media studies, geography, environmental studies, among others. The objective is to facilitate established and emerging dialogues on understanding global dynamics and processes, share research and methods across disciplines, and build a core network of academics across the globe that are focused on such inquiry.

*Keynotes and presenters will include: Carl Boggs, Edna Bonacich, Christopher Chase-Dunn, Kevin Danaher, Jesse Diaz, Martin Hart-Landsberg, Mark Jurgenmeyer, Doug Kellner, Mark Levine, Michael Mann, Valentine M. Moghadam, Jonathan Nitzan, * William I. Robinson, Jackie Smith and Amory Starr

* *

DEADLINE FOR PAPERS AND PANEL SUBMISSIONS: MARCH 15 Send to Jerry Harris at: gharris234@comcast.net

For Schedule, Registration, Hotel and more go to:
<http://www.net4dem.org/mayglobal>