Benefits

Students selected to participate in the program under the sponsorship will receive tuition, food, housing and access to the library and recreational facilities. Students selected to participate in the summer program are provided a travel subsidy.

Eligibility

This program is seeking undergraduate students about to enter their final year of undergraduate study in either demographic or health-related fields. Some recent graduates will be considered if special circumstances apply. Graduates of the program will ideally seek to pursue interdisciplinary training in a health-related profession.

How to Apply

Submit a brief letter explaining your interest in the summer program, your college transcript, and a letter of recommendation from your major professor. Application materials should be sent via mail to:
