FIELD EXAMS AND COURSEWORK

Students wishing to take the written field exam or to fulfill a field exam requirement through submitting coursework as evidence of expertise must take the cluster's core course, Sociology 230A (Race and Ethnicity), and two elective courses (from the list below).

Core course:

- Race and Ethnicity, Soc. 230A

Elective courses:

- Inequality
- Racial/Ethnic Feminist Perspectives
- Ethnic America
- Race and Education
- Immigration, Race, and the American Dream
- Comparative Racial Perspectives
- Contemporary Racial/Ethnic Theory
- Immigrant America
- Race/Ethnicity and Opportunity Structures

To take the written field exam, students initiate the process by contacting the cluster coordinator and obtaining the cluster's reading list.

To meet a field exam requirement by submitting written work, students must obtain approval from the cluster coordinator regarding the materials to be submitted.
